The gown was trimmed with Alencon lace. The elbow length bridal veil was held by a lace and pearl pillbox and her bouquet was of white hyacinths and butterfly orchids.

Wearing blue empire gowns, attendants were Mmes. Bernard Gore, James Thompson; Misses Yolanda Estrada and Harva Kuzee. Miriam Thompson was flower girl.

Ralph Johnston stood as best man and ushers were Rev. Dennis Guernsey, Harold Johnson and James Whitney.

The 250 guests attended a reception in the church social hall. The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School and Long Beach State College. She and her husband, a Compton College graduate, are both employed by World Vision International.
